SAINT TURIBIUS OF MOGROVEJO (1538-1606)
March 23

In times of crisis, God always surprises the Church with unlikely saints, through whom Christ's light radiates beyond their local communities to illumine the universal Church. Charles Borromeo was such a saint: appointed Archbishop of Milan at twenty-one by his papal uncle, epitomizing the corruption that the reformers condemned, Charles instead inspired a revival that reinvigorated a Church devastated by the Reformation. His less well-known contemporary, Turibius of Mongrovejo, was God's "saintly surprise" in the New World. Spanish-born lawyer, professor, head of the feared Inquisition, Turibius was still a layman when a grateful king appointed him Archbishop of far-off Lima. Once in Peru, however, Turibius was appalled at the abuse of indigenous peoples by the occupying conquistadores-his fellow countrymen-and by the complicity of the clergy. He became the natives' devoted advocate, building churches, schools, hospitals, and the first seminary in the Americas, publishing catechisms and prayerbooks in the native languages he painstakingly mastered. Four hundred years later, whenever Pope Benedict welcomed Latin American bishops to Rome, he always invoked "the shining example of San Toribio."

DID YOU KNOW...?

SAN TORIBIO DE MOGROVEJO (1538-1606)
23 de marzo

En tiempos de crisis, Dios siempre sorprende a la Iglesia con santos poco probables, a través de los cuales la luz de Cristo irradian más allá de sus comunidades locales para iluminar la Iglesia universal. Charles Borromeo era un santo: nombrado arzobispo de Milán a los veintiún años por su tío papal, personificando la corrupción que los reformadores condenaron, Charles en cambio inspiró un avivamiento que revivió una Iglesia devastada por la Reforma. Su contemporáneo menos conocido, Toribius de Mongrovejo, fue la "santa sorpresa" de Dios en el Nuevo Mundo. Abogado de origen español, profesor, jefe de la temida Inquisición, Toribius todavía era un laico cuando un rey agradecido lo nombró arzobispo de la lejana Lima. Sin embargo, una vez en Perú, Toribius se horrorizó por el abuso de los pueblos indígenas por parte de los conquistadores-his compatriotas, and by the complicity of the clergy. Se convirtió en el devoto defensor de los nativos, construyendo iglesias, escuelas, hospitales y el primer seminario en las Américas, publicando catecismos y libros de oraciones en los idiomas nativos que dominó minuciosamente. Cuatrocientos años después, cada vez que el Papa Benedicto daba la bienvenida a los obispos latinoamericanos en Roma, siempre invocaba "el brillo ejemplo de San Toribio."

O MARY, you shine continuously along our journey as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the Cross were near to the pain of Jesus, keeping your faith firm.
You, Salvation of the Roman people, know what we need, and we trust that you will provide for those needs so that, as at Capernaum of Galilee, joy and celebration may return after this moment of trial.
Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the will of the Father and to do what Jesus tells us, he who took our sufferings upon himself, and took up our sorrows to bring us through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God.
Do not despise our pleas — we who are put to the test — and deliver us from every danger.

Due to the Coronavirus, dates and activities are subject to change should we be informed of any updates regarding the status of this pandemic. Thank you for your understanding.

Jesus meets ...
The Man Born Blind

Jesus made the blind man see things for the first time ever.

The man said:
"LORD ... I BELIEVE YOU ARE THE SON OF GOD

Open wide the windows of our spirits and fill us full of light; open wide the door of our hearts, that we may receive and entertain Thee with all our powers of adoration.

Abre de par en par las ventanas de nuestro espíritu y llenaos de luz; abre de par en par la puerta de nuestro corazón para que podamos recibíre y agasajarte con todo nuestro poder de adoración.

FILL US/LLÉNANOS

"I've named your engine Lazarus, because it'll be a miracle if I bring it back to life."
This Sunday, also called Laetare Sunday, marks the "half-way point" in Lent. The name "Laetare" comes from the Latin word which begins the Entrance Antiphon, "Rejoice." The entrance antiphon is the very short prayer that opens the Mass - a prayer we might find on our missals that outlines the theme for the day's liturgy and prayer.

Why would we take time to focus on rejoicing in the midst of Lent? As we approach the celebration of Easter, we are invited to examine our own hearts, our lives, our seeing, to align ourselves ever more closely to Jesus who cured a man born blind who becomes a believer and disciple. But Jesus also encountered doubters, detractors and indifference along the way.

Those who see, who believe, are called upon, then as now, to take a stand. The man who is cured, and we, are called upon to have the courage to witness to the truth we know. All three readings focus on the power and responsibility of seeing rightly: the leader Samuel learns not to trust his first impressions, because the Lord looks into the heart and sees more deeply and differently. Paul tells the Christians of Ephesus - and us - that we have been called to live as children of the light, in accord with what pleases the Lord.

In the Gospel Jesus heals a person of physical blindness, the most obvious kind of "not-seeing". But then the person healed encounters the forms of blindness of which Jesus speaks: those who are afraid to take a stand for what they see and know to be true, those who refuse to see the truth because it upsets their world view, and those who are indifferent to what they see because it would require them to make a choice.

In what ways do we refuse to see as God sees? Do we neglect to try to see rightly, beyond first impressions or past our fears? Do we participate in works of darkness?

Baptism - the healing light of faith - is a blessing for all of us. Pray with us as we all prepare for a worthy Easter celebration. Each Sunday when we gather as a community of faith to celebrate Eucharist, we are able to re-discover the power of the Eucharist to nourish us as we live the Gospel life as children of the light! Please continue to pray for our adult Elect, Michael, Ariana and Allison and the children Elect as they prepare to celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation.

Wednesday Evenings: 7:00 PM – 9:15 PM
March 25: Preparation for the Third Scrutiny
April 1: Preparing for Palm Sunday and Holy Week

Este domingo, también llamado Domingo de Laetare, marca el "punto medio" en la Cuaresma. El nombre "Laetare" proviene de la palabra latina que comienza la Antífona de entrada, 'Alegrate'. La antífona de entrada es la oración muy corta que abre la misa, una oración que podemos encontrar en nuestros misales que describe el tema de la liturgia y la oración del día.

¿Por qué nos tomamos el tiempo para concentrarnos en regocijarnos en medio de la Cuaresma? A medida que nos acercamos a la celebración de la Pascua, estamos invitados a examinar nuestros propios corazones, nuestras vidas, nuestra visión, para alinearnos cada vez más con Jesús, quien curó a un hombre nacido ciego que se convierte en creyente y discípulo. Pero Jesús también se encontró con escépticos, detractores e indiferencia en el camino.

Los que ven, los que creen, están llamados, entonces como ahora, a tomar una posición. El hombre que está curado, y nosotros, estamos llamados a tener el coraje de dar testimonio de la verdad que conocemos. Las tres lecturas se centran en el poder y la responsabilidad de ver correctamente: el líder Samuel aprende a no confiar en sus primeras impresiones, porque el Señor mira al corazón y ve de manera más profunda y diferente. Pablo les dice a los cristianos de Efeso, y a nosotros, que hemos sido llamados a vivir como hijos de la luz, de acuerdo con lo que agradó al Señor.

En el Evangelio, Jesús sana a una persona con ceguera física, el tipo más obvio de "no ver". Pero luego la persona curada se encuentra con las formas de ceguera de las que habla Jesús: los que tienen miedo de defender lo que ven y saben que es verdad, los que se niegan a ver la verdad porque trastorna su visión del mundo y los que están indiferentes a lo que ven porque les requeriría tomar una decisión.

¿De qué maneras nos negamos a ver como Dios ve? ¡Nos olvidamos de tratar de ver correctamente, más allá de las primeras impresiones o más allá de nuestros miedos! ¡Participamos en obras de oscuridad?

El bautismo, la luz sanadora de la fe, es una bendición para todos nosotros. Ore con nosotros mientras todos nos preparamos para una digna celebración de Pascua. ¡Cada domingo, cuando nos reunimos como comunidad de fe para celebrar la Eucaristía, podemos volver a descubrir el poder de la Eucaristía para alimentarnos mientras vivimos la vida del Evangelio como hijos de la luz! Continue orando por nuestros adultos elegidos, Michael, Ariana y Allison y los niños elegidos mientras se preparan para celebrar los sacramentos de iniciación.
