HOLY WEEK AND THE PASchal TRIDUUM
Sunday, March 29 - Sunday, April 5, 2020
"The days of Jesus' life-giving death and glorious resurrection are approaching, the hour he triumphed over Satan's pride, the time we celebrate the great event of our redemption" (Preface of the Lord's Passion II, Sacramentary). Thus the Church begins the one week of the year that we formally designate as "Holy." Simple rituals can link the domestic church to parish church and Church universal. Enthrone Sunday's palms where you pray, behind the family crucifix, even as part of front door decorations: "Christ reigns here," they proclaim; "all are welcome!" During the first three days of Holy Week, ready Easter clothes, prepare festal foods, clean the house, beautify the yard. Late Holy Thursday afternoon, share Lent's final meal before the Lord's Supper Mass. Pitcher, bowl, and towel make a fitting centerpiece; perhaps conclude the meal by washing each other's feet. On Good Friday, observe the paschal fast from food-from TV and computer, too! Then pray the Holy Saturday's Vigil with mind clear, stomach empty, and heart full of "holy anticipation" that bursts into living flame when the new fire is kindled.

SEMANA SANTA Y EL TRIDUO PASCAL
Domingo, 29 de Marzo - Domingo, 5 de Abril, 2020
"Se acercan los días de la muerte y la resurrección gloriosa de Jesús, la hora en que triunfó sobre el orgullo de Satanás, el momento en que celebramos el gran evento de nuestra redención" (Prefacio de la Pasión del Señor II, Sacramental). Así, la Iglesia comienza la semana del año que formalmente designamos como "Santa". Los rituales simples pueden vincular la iglesia doméstica con la iglesia parroquial y la Iglesia universal. Entronice las palmas del domingo donde reza, detrás del crucifijo familiar, incluso como parte de las decoraciones de la puerta principal: "Cristo reina aquí", proclaman; "todos son bienvenidos!" Durante los primeros tres días de la Semana Santa, prepare la ropa de Pascua, prepare comidas festivas, limpie la casa y embellezca el patio. A última hora de la tarde del Jueves Santo, comparta la comida final de la Cuaresma antes de la Misa de la Cena del Señor. La jarra, el tazón y la toalla son una pieza central adecuada; quizás concluya la comida lavándose los pies el uno al otro. El Viernes Santo, observe el ayuno pascual de la comida, ide la televisión y la computadora también! Luego, reza la Vigilia del Sábado Santo con la mente despejada, el estómago vacío y un corazón lleno de "santa anticipación" que estalla en llamas cuando se enciende el nuevo fuego.
Public Masses are suspended until further notice. Mass is streamed live, linked through our parish website on YouTube Monday through Friday 8am Spanish and 9am English. Sunday Masses: 10am English and Noon Spanish.

Preparation for the Feast of Divine Mercy

The community Novena of Divine Mercy begins this Good Friday, continuing through Easter week until the Feast of Divine Mercy on April 19. Please consult the posted schedule for details and consider joining the services planned, especially on Tuesday, April 14 (if not still suspended) where our parish will be hosting the 5th-Day-Novena attended by members from eight other parishes during our regularly scheduled Tuesday evening Mass, Father Rogelio González, homilist. “By this Novena of chaplets I will grant every possible grace to souls.” (Diary 796)

Holy Week & Easter Sunday Masses

Holy Thursday Mass at 7:00 PM will be live on YouTube.

Good Friday Service will be live at 7:00 PM. Stations from Assumption are in the works, to be aired on Father’s YouTube at Noon.

We are encouraged to join in with the Vigil Mass that Bishop Barnes will celebrate at 8:00 PM on Holy Saturday evening - link through the Diocesan website and the Diocesan YouTube channel.

Father Rogelio will not be offering a separate Vigil Mass.

Easter Sunday Masses will be as has been: English at 10am and Spanish at Noon on April 12.

Weekly Catholic Challenge!

As we continue with our quarantine life, hopefully we are also continuing to journey in faith, growing in formation and strengthening our relationship with God as individuals and families! It is our faith that will get us through these challenging times with peace, strength, courage, and hope. “Therefore, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and constraints, for the sake of Christ; for when I am weak, then I am strong.” 2 Corinthians 12:10

It is when we are at our weakest, when we have nothing left of ourselves to give or rely on, that we finally fully surrender our lives, loves, finances, health, women, anxieties, education, careers, and futures to God. At that very moment, He will fill us to overflowing with His Holy Spirit! Therefore, let us not wait until we are at our weakest before turning to Him. Let us surrender all that we are and everything we have to our God who loves us, so that we can be at our strongest in Him!

Every week I will be challenging you to go the extra mile, not just the minimum, so as to grow in holiness, deepen your faith life, and strengthen your relationship with God. Some of these are “No Brainers!” If these Challenges are already healthy habits for you and your family, awesome! Know that you are not alone! We are with you! Keep it up! But if these Challenges are new to you, wonderful! We begin our journey of faith towards holiness, and with Jesus, now! Here is how...

1. Go to Mass! Although public Masses have been suspended, OLA has been broadcasting Masses with Fr. Rogello via live stream on his YouTube Channel: https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCHC_hUAGFvZon5ZkE-tqf5H
   - Weekday Masses (Monday-Saturday) in Spanish @ 8am and in English @ 9am
   - Sunday Masses in English @ 10am and in Spanish @ 12pm
   - Even though you will be attending Mass at home, dress up, sit, kneel, stand, respond, and sing! You will feel connected knowing hundreds of our OLA community are with you!

2. Create a Sacred Space in your home where any member of your family can go to reflect, read & study scripture, meditate, and pray. Choose a quiet area in your home, where every child of the family can go to sit quietly and meditate. This is a great way to teach children about faith!

3. Create Daily Family Prayer Time. Together pray devotions such as the Rosary, Divine Mercy Chaplet, and the Liturgy of the Hours. Allow different family members to take the lead. Go to good Catholic websites such as Breviary.org or get the app. Go to USCCB.org for good resources! PLEASE CALL ME FOR ANYTHING (909) 266-4703

God’s blessings and protection be with you all!
We, the faith community of Our Lady of the Assumption Parish, humbly proclaim with our beloved Virgin Mary, that we are the servants of the Lord. Rooted in the Gospel of Jesus Christ, we value and celebrate the diversity of our cultures and strive to be of loving support to one another. We are committed to the sacramental life and Traditions of the Church through worship, prayer, study, and service. We seek to become true evangelists by continuing to nourish and strengthen our Roman Catholic Faith.

Nosotros, la comunidad de fe de la parroquia de Nuestra Señora de la Asunción, proclamamos humildemente con nuestra amada Virgen María, que somos siervos del Señor. Enraizados en el Evangelio de Jesucristo, valoramos y celebramos la diversidad de nuestras culturas y nos esforzamos amorosamente a darnos apoyo el uno al otro. Por medio del culto, la oración, el estudio y el servicio, estamos comprometidos a la vida sacramental y a las tradiciones de la Iglesia. Buscamos ser verdaderos evangelizadores nutriendo y fortaleciendo nuestra fe Católica Romana.
Our Liturgy today begins a sacred week. And this day is exceptional - we begin with a procession in the spirit of the Gospel telling of Jesus’ entry into Jerusalem. As we hear of the people going out to greet Jesus, we carry blessed palms which we will later place in a place of reverence in our homes.

The reading from Isaiah is selected here because of its close connection to the Passion narrative. We become deeply aware of the intense love of Jesus for all humanity, that he experienced this suffering for our redemption. This section of Paul's letter to the Philippians has been connected with Palm Sunday from about the 5th century - it speaks not only of the Passion and death, but also of the exaltation of Jesus - that we, the redeemed, are to honor Jesus the Christ above all!

Our hearts and minds turn to God with deep gratitude for the mercy, love and forgiveness that are offered to us. We reflect on the Paschal Mystery of the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. This year, in Cycle A, we hear Matthew's Gospel. The Passion, as much of Matthew's entire Gospel, links the prophecies of the Old Testament with the events, actions, teachings and prayers in the life of Jesus. There is an intentional correlation between the two: the assurance that Jesus is the Chosen One, the Christ, fulfilling the Jewish Scriptures.

We hear of the faithfulness of some of the disciples, and we are challenged to find ourselves within the story. Throughout this week, at each of the services, we follow in the footsteps of the disciples, and learn anew that our continuing conversion requires an internal death, that being faithful disciples has a cost, and that God's grace and support will be with us, always, as we seek to follow Jesus.

Please continue to pray for our Elect, children and adults, who are making their spiritual final preparations for joining our Catholic Community at the upcoming Easter Vigil.
