A woman of Samaria came to draw water.
Jesus said to her, “Give me a drink.”

John 4:7

DID YOU KNOW ...

SAINT JOSEPH, HUSBAND OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY
March 19
Joseph, someone once joked, was indeed the perfect husband: the only major character in Jesus’ story who never utters a word! But the Gospel recounts and the liturgy celebrates his silent witness of faith-filled deeds: “With a husband’s love he cherished Mary, the Virgin Mother of God; with fatherly care he watched over Jesus” (Preface of Saint Joseph, Sacramentary). Catholic devotion, therefore, hails him as patron-protector of the universal Church. Some cultures set a festive “Saint Joseph’s Table,” welcoming the poor and strangers to feast with family and friends. Tradition keeps today as the anniversary of his death, which we presume was peaceful, with Jesus and Mary present. Thus, Catholics invoke Joseph as Patron of a Happy Death. Descended from David’s house, which God finished “building” through Joseph’s provision of a home for Mary and Jesus, he was, fittingly, a carpenter by trade; thus, patron of workers. Spring, nature’s rebirth, begins between his feast and Annunciation (March 25), appropriately, since Joseph’s silent obedience and Mary’s “Let it be done to me according to your word” (Luke 1:38) usher in humanity’s spiritual rebirth.

San José, Esposo de la Bendita Virgen María
19 de Marzo
Joseph, alguien bromeó una vez, era el esposo perfecto: el único personaje principal en la historia de Jesús que nunca pronuncia una palabra! Pero el Evangelio cuenta y la liturgia celebra su testimonio silencioso de obras llenas de fe: “Con el amor de un esposo, él apreciaba a María, la Virgen Madre de Dios; con cuidado paternal, velaba por Jesús” (Prefacio de San José, Sacramental). La devoción católica, por lo tanto, lo aclama como patrón protector de la Iglesia universal. Algunas culturas organizan una festiva “Mesa de San José”, que da la bienvenida a los pobres y extraños a un festín con familiares y amigos. La tradición se mantiene hoy como el aniversario de su muerte, que suponemos que fue pacífica, con Jesús y María presentes. Por lo tanto, los católicos invocan a José como Patrón de una muerte feliz. Por lo tanto, los católicos invocan a José como Patrón de una muerte feliz. Descendiente de la casa de David, que Dios terminó de “construir” a través de la provisión de un hogar para José y María, él era, apropiadamente, un carpintero de oficio; así, patrón de los trabajadores. La primavera, el renacimiento de la naturaleza, comienza entre su fiesta y la Anunciación (25 de marzo), apropiadamente, desde la obediencia silenciosa de José y el “Déjame hacerlo según tu palabra” (Lucas 1:38) marcan el comienzo del renacimiento espiritual de la humanidad.
Divine Mercy Sunday

Warning

“I do not want to punish aching mankind, but I desire to heal it, pressing it to My merciful Heart. I use punishment when they themselves force me to do so; my hand is reluctant to take hold of the sword of justice. Before the Day of Justice, I am sending the Day of Mercy. I am prolonging the time of mercy for the sake of sinners. But woe to them if they do not recognize this time of My visitation.”

“We are in front of a global scandal of around one billion – one billion people who still suffer from hunger today. We cannot look the other way and pretend this does not exist. The food available in the world is enough to feed everyone.”

Pope Francis

Assumption Youth Ministry is answering Pope Francis’ call to hear the cry of the poor. So as to be in solidarity with our brothers in sisters in our country and around the world who live in poverty, we will be eating rice & beans for dinner. Please join us for an evening of raising awareness, hearts, and funds for global hunger and poverty.
Thank you

The Little Ones

"Sir, you have nothing to draw with and the well is deep; where then do you get that living water?" Jn 4:11
This is the first of three very special Sundays for all those who are preparing for Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist! As we come ever nearer the Easter Vigil—the time of Initiation—the Church gives us in this Cycle A three powerful symbolic Gospel events, since the time of the early Christians. These are our “Scrutiny Sundays” for our Elect. And, we already baptized, prepare for the renewal of our Baptism promises at Easter. During these three weeks before Passion (Palm) Sunday, we intensify our journey with those who will be baptized at the Vigil. We also intensify our preparation for our celebration of the Paschal Mystery of death and resurrection in the weeks ahead.

Our life of faith within the church springs from our baptismal truth, through which we have been incorporated into the Body of Christ. Jesus promises the living water of baptism, of salvation not only to the woman of Samaria, but to all Christian believers. While the Gospel story begins with a conversation about water which quenches thirst, it moves to consideration of spiritual thirst. How many of us have experienced thirst, real almost-about-to-die thirst? Most likely, few of us. We might imagine it, remembering some long difficult work, a long hike in the desert, or the desire for water when it is carefully rationed.

But what about the thirsts of our hearts—for love, acceptance, trust, for peace of heart and peace in our world, for forgiveness, for the chance to start over again and make things better? The woman at the well who speaks with Jesus knows both kinds of thirst. If we delve into our hearts to examine our needs—our hungers and thirsts—I suspect that we would speak with Jesus knows both kinds of thirst. If we delve into our hearts to examine our needs—our hungers and thirsts—I suspect that we would also realize there are many spiritual thirsts we have. Jesus promises us living water—the waters of rebirth, baptism and baptismal renewal.

Baptism—living water—is a blessing for all of us. Pray with us as we all seek to prepare for a worthy Easter celebration. Each Sunday when we gather as a community of faith to celebrate Eucharist, we are able to re-discover the power of the Eucharist to nourish us as we live the Gospel life each and every day!

Please continue to pray for our Adult Elect, Michael, Ariana and Allison and for the Elect children as they prepare to celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — When the people grumbled to Moses for water in the desert, the Lord heard and brought forth water from the rock for all to drink (Exodus 17:3-7).

Psalm — If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts (Psalm 95).

Second Reading — God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit (Romans 5:1-2, 5-8).

Gospel — Ask, and you will be given living water so that you will never thirst again (John 4:5-42 [5-15, 19b-26, 39a, 40-42]).
