All over the world people are slowing down and reflecting. All over the world people are looking at their neighbors in a new way. All over the world people are waking up to a new reality. To how big we really are. To how little control we really have. To what really matters. To Love. So we pray and we remember that Yes there is fear., but there does not have to be hate. Yes there is isolation, but there does not have to be loneliness. Yes there is panic buying, but there does not have to be meanness. Yes there is sickness, but there does not have to be disease of the soul. Yes there is even death, but there does not have to be a rebirth of love. Wake to the choices you make as to how to live now. Today, breathe. Listen, behind the factory noises of your panic. The birds are singing again. The sky is clearing. Spring is coming, and we are always encompassed by Love. Open the windows of your soul and though you may not be able to touch across the empty square... Sing.

Something to reflect on...

En todo el mundo la gente se está desacelerando y reflexionando. En todo el mundo, las personas miran a sus vecinos de una manera nueva. En todo el mundo, la gente está despertando a una nueva realidad. A lo grande que realmente somos. A qué poco control tenemos realmente. A lo que realmente importa. Amar. Entonces rezamos y recordamos que. sí, hay miedo, pero no tiene que haber odio. Si hay aislamiento, pero no tiene que haber soledad... Sí, hay compras de pánico, pero no tiene que haber maldad. Sí, hay enfermedad, pero no tiene que haber enfermedad del alma. Sí, incluso hay muerte, pero siempre puede haber un renacimiento del amor. Despiértate con las elecciones que haces sobre cómo vivir ahora. Hoy respira Escucha, detrás de los ruidos de fábrica de tu pánico. Los pájaros cantan de nuevo. El cielo se está despejando. La primavera está llegando, y siempre estamos rodeados de amor. Abre las ventanas de tu alma y aunque no puedas tocar al otro lado de la plaza... Canta.

Algo para reflexionar...
We are creating a story for the History of the Church that is unlike any in the last centuries. The Gospel today reminds us that the risen Jesus is present with us, sometimes in ways we do not yet recognize. Each year, the Gospel of the Second Sunday is that in which Jesus comes to his disciples on the day of his resurrection and offers them peace, reassuring Thomas of his resurrection. Now, the story continues.

During Easter Season, the first reading is taken from the Acts of the Apostles, rather than from the Old Testament. In this section, from the first proclamation of Peter after Pentecost, we recognize a summary of the Good News of salvation and God’s love for all. In the second reading from the first letter of St. Peter, the great apostle continues his teaching of God’s care and our redemption through Jesus Christ. It takes courage to live as disciples.

In the Gospel of Luke, we hear the awesome story of Jesus’ appearance and conversation with the disciples on the road to Emmaus. The Gospel story is the image and model of not only initiation ministries, but of our lives as disciples. On the day of Jesus’ Resurrection, toward the end of the day, the disciples, walking home to Emmaus, are discussing all the events of the last few days in Jerusalem, still quite at a loss to understand what it all means. A stranger approaches them, inquires about their concerns, and, joining them on their journey, unfolds for them the depth of meaning of the events. Arriving at their home, the disciples invite the stranger to share a meal, and in the breaking of the bread, they recognize their Risen Lord. They hurried back to Jerusalem to share their joyous news with the other disciples.

Our prayer for each member of the Community is that the joy and faith of our faith will be our strength until the time that we will be able to meet and celebrate the Mass and sacraments together with renewed faith and hope! God be with you and bless you!

In the Evangelio de Lucas, escuchamos la increíble historia de la aparición de Jesús y la conversación con sus discípulos en el camino a Emaús. La historia del Evangelio es la imagen y el modelo no solo de los ministerios de iniciación, sino también de nuestras vidas como discípulos. En el día de la Resurreción de Jesús, hacia el final del día, los discípulos, caminando a casa a Emaús, están discutiendo todos los eventos de los últimos días en Jerusalén, todavía sin saber que significa todo esto. Un extraño se acerca a ellos, les pregunta sobre sus preocupaciones y, uniéndose a ellos en su viaje, les revela la profundidad del significado de los eventos. Al llegar a su casa, los discípulos invitan al extraño a compartir una comida, y al partir el pan, reconocen a su Señor resucitado. Se apresuraron a regresar a Jerusalén para compartir sus alegres noticias con los otros discípulos.

¡Nuestra oración por cada miembro de la Comunidad es que la alegría y la fe de nuestra fe serán nuestra fortaleza hasta el momento en que podamos reunirnos y celebrar la Misa y los sacramentos junto con una fe y esperanza renovadas! ¡Que Dios esté contigo y te bendiga!

FROM THE BULLETIN’S EDITOR

If you want to publish an event, please send your information to the bulletin editor at bulletin@olasb.org by two weeks in advance of the bulletin date you want it published. Your information must include the date(s) you want it published, and in the article itself: the name of the event, the parish group sponsoring it, the date, time and place of the event, cost (if there is one), and other brief pertinent information. If you have a graphic or logo, please send as a “ready-to-print” item. Always be sure to give your contact information so that the Bulletin editor can contact you if necessary. Thank you and God bless.
