The Catholic Family!

Every week I will be challenging you to go the extra mile, not just the minimum, so as to grow in holiness, deepen your faith life, and strengthen your relationship with God. Some of these are “No Brainers”! If these Challenges are already healthy habits for you and your family, awesome! Know that you are not alone! We are with you! Keep it up! But if these Challenges are new to you, wonderful! We begin our journey of faith towards holiness, and with Jesus, now! Here is how...

1. Go to Mass with Fr. Rogelo via live stream on his Youtube Channel: https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCHC_bjAOGFv7om62K-E-hHQ
   Weekdays (Monday-Saturday) in Spanish @ 8am and in English @ 9am AND Sundays in English @ 10am and in Spanish @ 12pm

2. Create a Sacred Space in your home. Set a prayer table with religious items that remind you of God and helps you to pray individually and as a family.

3. Do weekly online giving. You will not believe the blessings you and your family receive in giving to support your church! https://www.myowntgiving.com/Default.aspx?cid=1341

4. Go to breviary.org for more prayers and devotions

5. Read Scripture out loud as a family.

During this time, we truly appreciate the continuing service of the websites, books of prayer and our parish website that give us the daily readings so that we can read and reflect on them at home. This week also celebrates Earth Day, April 22.

The first reading today from the Acts of the Apostles (Acts 2: 42-47) shows us the transformative power of the Resurrection through the grace and life of the Holy Spirit. That wasn't only in the lives of the apostles and disciples. The Spirit continues to be present.

In recent Tradition, this Sunday is called Divine Mercy Sunday, a feast designated in the year 2000. building on the traditional Scriptures which speak so strongly of the divine mercy of Jesus towards all who turn their hearts to the Lord, and on the visions of St. Faustina. The Scriptures teach us of God's presence and grace - the Acts of the Apostles, the first letter of St. Peter (1 Peter 1:3-9) and the Gospel of John (John 20: 19-31). The apostle, Thomas, who had doubted the appearance of Jesus is reassured and blessed by Jesus Himself. What a blessing that Jesus knows and understands.

We have just celebrated the Easter feast, though differently this year, we still have been - "along together" with the universal Church. able to renew our own baptismal promises and caught up in prayer for all who continue on the faith journey. The Gospel of the Resurrection is hope-filled and reassuring - our Risen Lord is always with us!

The Lord has also charged us with care of creation, and on this 5th anniversary of the Encyclical of Pope Francis, Laudato Si, we are reminded of our responsibility to be earth-conscious and our call to live more simply and attentively as beloved caretakers of this world.
